SUMMARY

The website for GallopNYC confirms that the Recreational Group Riding class is open to the broader public, has a visible fee of $80 that matches the form-stated price, and is not clinical in nature. Review is needed to verify whether the fees are identical for OPWDD and non-OPWDD individuals due to the lack of specific pricing information, whether the class provides college credits, and whether there's a published schedule. Internal Checks constitute 12 items that always require human confirmation.

What needs your attention

NEEDS YOUR ATTENTION

Needs Review

Are the fees identical for both OPWDD and non-OPWDD individuals (no segregated pricing)? — The webpage for GallopNYC's recreational riding mentions pricing for group and private lessons, but it does not specify whether fees are the same or different for OPWDD individuals compared to non-OPWDD individuals. There is no mention of OPWDD-specific pricing or discounts, so further review is needed to determine if the pricing is identical.

Needs Review

Is the class subject based (art, dance, martial arts, cooking, etc.)? — The page text refers to 'structured, semester-based horsemanship program' and offers 'recreational riding lessons,' confirming the subject-based nature on horseback riding. [The model's quoted snippet could not be verified against the captured page content, so it was discarded and this finding was held at Needs Review.]

Needs Review

Does the class provide college credits? (must be NO) — The webpage does not mention whether the Recreational Group Riding class provides college credits. Without an explicit statement, a review is needed to confirm this criterion.

Needs Review

Is there a published schedule of the class? — The page does not provide a published schedule for the 'Recreational Group Riding' class.

Internal Checks

These items can't be checked from a public website by design — they depend on internal records (budget, Life Plan, provider screening documents) or reviewer judgment. They are not failed checks; they're simply out of the website's reach.

Budget and funding

Are community classes currently approved in the budget?

Requires the participant's approved IDGS/Self-Direction budget record showing community classes as an approved spending category.

Application answer: Yes

Participant plan and outcomes

Does the class provide opportunity for community inclusion?

Requires the participant's Life Plan narrative and reviewer judgment on whether this specific class supports a community-inclusion goal.

Application answer: Yes

Does the class accommodate the individual's health and/or safety needs?

Requires participant-specific health/safety documentation from the Life Plan — not published anywhere on a public website.

Application answer: Yes

Does the class increase independence or substitute for human assistance?

Requires the participant's Life Plan goals and reviewer judgment on how this class relates to them.

Application answer: Yes

Provider and programme eligibility

Is the class provided exclusively for the benefit of the participant? (must be NO)

Requires confirmation from the FI Coordinator/Broker that the class benefits the participant only, not shared with family members.

Application answer: No

Is the class given in a setting accessed only by people with Developmental Disabilities? (must be NO)

A provider's public marketing page doesn't reliably disclose facility-access policy; requires reviewer follow-up with the provider or program documentation.

Application answer: No

Is the class run by OPWDD or a provider-agency staff acting in their official capacities? (must be NO)

Requires internal knowledge of OPWDD-affiliated staff/providers — not determinable from the class's public website.

Application answer: No

Is the class located on grounds where OPWDD services are normally provided? (must be NO)

Requires cross-referencing the agency's internal list of OPWDD-certified locations, which isn't public data.

Application answer: No

Duplication of services

Does the class duplicate any Medicaid state plan or HCBS waiver services?

Requires the participant's Medicaid/HCBS waiver service authorization records to check for overlap.

Application answer: No

Does the class duplicate services given through the Board of Education for school-aged children?

Requires the participant's school/Board of Education IEP or service records.

Application answer: No

Reimbursement and invoicing

Is the class being reimbursed directly (W9 required)?

Requires the participant's chosen payment method and, if reimbursed directly, a completed W-9 on file.

Application answer: No

Invoice-rule context: >2 sessions/day (≤ 60 min each) or >7 sessions/week at one provider needs prior approval.

Requires the planned number of sessions per day/week, which isn't present on this application form or any website.
