SUMMARY

The website review found no verifiable confirmation of program details for LaGuardia Community College's Adult & Continuing Education. Attention is needed regarding the program's fee publication, as the current page lacks specific fee details. It is also unclear from the content if the program is noncredit-bearing and if the coursework specifically addresses skill-building and employment outcomes. Furthermore, while a form states a fee within the acceptable cap, the billing basis needs confirmation to ensure compliance with program fee limits. As always, Internal Checks require human verification.

What needs your attention

NEEDS YOUR ATTENTION

Needs Review

Does the program have published fees? — The captured text does not contain any explicit details about the published fees for courses at LaGuardia Community College's Adult & Continuing Education program. While the page mentions various programs and services, it does not give specific fee information or confirm its existence directly.

Needs Review

Is the program a noncredit-bearing transition program? (must be YES) — The page provides information about continuing education at LaGuardia Community College but does not specify whether the transition program is noncredit-bearing or credit-bearing. The absence of this clarification means the criterion cannot be confidently verified from the text provided.

Needs Review

Does the coursework address skill-building and employment outcomes? — The page suggests that Continuing Education at LaGuardia Community College includes elements like job training, career advancement, and growing a business, which implies employment-related courses. However, explicit details about courses specifically addressing skill-building and employment outcomes are not provided. This requires further review for clarification. [The model's quoted snippet could not be verified against the captured page content, so it was discarded and this finding was held at Needs Review.]

Needs Review

Is the published course fee within the program's fee caps ($\leq$ \$350/course or $\leq$ \$800/month)? — Form-stated fee (\$300) is within the \$350 cap. This form states a per-course fee, so the \$350/course cap is applied. If the program instead bills monthly, the \$800/month cap applies instead — a reviewer should confirm the billing basis. [Held at Needs Review: the supporting text was found but a readable, targeted screenshot of the exact proof could not be produced, so a reviewer should confirm this directly on the site.]

Internal Checks

These items can't be checked from a public website by design — they depend on internal records (budget, Life Plan, provider screening documents) or reviewer judgment. They are not failed checks; they're simply out of the website's reach.

Provider and programme eligibility

Are all staff/volunteers/trainers screened for criminal background & excluded-provider status? (letter required)

Requires a screening-confirmation letter from the program — this cannot be inferred from the provider's public website.

Application answer: Yes

Is the program provided in an OPWDD-certified location? (must be NO)

Requires cross-referencing the agency's internal list of OPWDD-certified locations, which isn't public data.

Application answer: No

Budget and funding

Is the Transition program currently approved in the budget?

Requires the participant's approved Self-Direction budget record showing Transition Program as an approved spending category.

Application answer: Yes

Participant plan and outcomes

Has the individual already completed their educational program?

Transition programs are for adults who have aged out of their prior educational program — confirm from the participant's record, not the provider's website.

Application answer: Yes

Does the coursework address the individual's valued outcome?

Requires the participant's Life Plan valued-outcome narrative and reviewer judgment.

Application answer: Yes

Duplication of services

Can the program be funded by ACCES-VR, IDEA, or any other source? (must be NO)

Requires knowledge of the participant's ACCES-VR/IDEA/other funding eligibility — not determinable from the provider's website.

Application answer: No
